D'ARCY DOUBTFUL

BOTH Wycombe Wanderers and Slough Town have matches to play before the County Cup final. Wanderers meet Walthamstow Avenue tomorrow (Friday) for an Isthmian League match at Loakes Park while Slough have two Athenian League matches to fulfil.

They travel to Hounslow tonight (Thursday) and entertain Erith and Belvedere on Saturday. Both games are important as Slough could well retain the Athenian championship this season.

Barring injury in those matches, Slough have only one doubt, veteran Alf D'Arcy who has hamstring trouble. He missed the Rebels 5-0 home win over Wembley on Monday when Gaine (2), Day, Eaton and O'Sullivan scored the goals.

Despite Peter Spittle's fine performance in goal against Horsham on Tuesday, Wanderers are expected to bring back John Maskell for the final on Monday. John's consistency over the season wins him his place.
